Re: Recommendation for Ms. Anne Shaw

I take great pleasure in writing to support the exceptional candidacy of Ms. Anne Shaw in a position of teaching leadership and educational consulting. I have had the unique privilege to know and be acquainted with Ms. Shaw for over 15 years. My experience in working closely with her enables me to address her unique and extraordinary ability as a leader and educator. I have worked directly with Ms. Shaw and have witnessed the impact of her leadership, work and worth. I am, therefore, proud to recommend her and do so with much confidence.

I will not detail Ms. Shaw's extensive and impressive experience as a teacher, educational coach, manager, and leader since that will be evident from her vitae. I will say that Ms. Shaw has a superb and distinguished career. A review of Ms. Shaw's credentials will aptly demonstrate a seasoned educator grounded in a culture that values students and teachers. Ms. Shaw has a high energy level and excellent interpersonal skills which enable her to relate and interact with a wide variety of constituencies quite effectively.

Ms. Shaw is particularly good at conceptualizing and articulating ideas and this translates into an exceptional and effective leader. She is a gifted, talented and extraordinary educator. To summarize, I think very highly of Ms. Shaw. Her record reflects a dedicated teacher, an articulate educational coach and innovator, an empathic colleague, and an excellent and supportive resource person.

In conclusion, any educational institution would be well served by the distinguished presence of Ms. Shaw.

I would be pleased to elaborate further or respond to any questions or requests you might have about Ms. Shaw.

Respectfully,

Dr. Larry A. Robinson
